LAUREL RACING IMPROVES

BEST CARD OF THE MEETING DECIDED AT MARYLAND COURSE YESTERDAY.

Montresor Wins Hopkins Selling Stakes for R. T. Wilson—Consistent Spring Board Carries Cassatt Colors to Victory in Handicap.

Baltimore, Md. October 8.—By far the best card of the meeting was run off at Laurel this afternoon, with the Hopkins Selling Stakes and a six-furlongs handicap serving as the star numbers of the program. The stake went to Richard T. Wilson's Montresor in a driving finish with Barnegat, while the public choice, Dartworth, was unplaced. Dartworth, with Johnny McTaggart up, showed such an excellent performance in his last effort that it was not strange the public pinned their faith to him, but when it came to racing Montresor had the speed of the party all the way, even with W. Ward in the saddle. The Wilson racer dashed to the front soon after the start, with Barnegat and Dartworth following closely. Montresor was inclined to quit in the stretch, but Ward managed to keep him going long enough to win. The struggle for second place was close, with Baranegat getting the verdict over Blue Thistle, which just nosed out Colonel Cook. Cadeau, which got off slowly, closed much ground and ran further than any other horse in the race. The winner was bid up after the race $805 over his entered price of $1,000, George Reif doing the bidding.

Capt. E. B. Cassatt won the handicap with the consistent Spring Board, which got home in a hard drive to beat the favorite, Yankee Notions. Davies outrode Karrick right at the end. This was decidedly the best field that has run during the meeting in a sprint race. Old Sir John Johnson showed an excellent performance, forcing the pace from the start.

One of those occasional long shots that go over materialized in the fifth race, when Brando, at 100 to 1, beat out Spellbound, with the favorite, Hedge Rose, in the ruck.

After the last race yesterday J. L. Holland, whose Gregg won and was bid up $800, claimed Polly H. from H. S. Kearney for $900.

George Odom will bring a string of two-year-olds to the races next season. He has twenty, the get of Celt, at Sheepshead Bay, and the horsemen who have seen them pronounce them a fine looking lot.

James Fitzsimmons has eight yearlings and the older horses Sandhill, Via Octavia and Rosseaux at Gravesend in winter quarters.

Thomas Healey has fifteen yearlings in charge that will carry the silks of Richard T. Wilson next year. Of the lot only two are by Yankee.

The nine yearlings that W. F. Presgrave purchased in Ireland for Thomas Clyde have reached Pimlico. In addition to these, he has two Canadian-bred yearlings that will be raced next season.

Clarence Davids has obtained the contract on Jockey Nicklaus and will buy a few horses to race during the coming Charleston meeting.

Brando was the longest priced winner of the meeting. When offered at auction, Sam Louis bid him up to $800 and bought him.

Sheridan Clark was at the track this afternoon in the interest of the $20,000 International Derby which is to be run at Dorval Park next year.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Joseph Dreyer was married to a Montreal girl at Toronto a few days ago.

The Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses has distributed blanks for the United Hotel Stakes, the Grand Union Hotel Stakes, the Spinaway Stakes, the Hopeful Stakes and the Grab Bag Handicap, to be run at Saratoga next year.

The Toronto Driving Club management is weighing the merits of a plan to move the judges' stand at Hillcrest twenty feet back, bringing the stretch out that much farther to the south, and make the turn, where so many falls have taken place, easier. As a matter of fact, the turn now is not as sharp as the northern one at Dufferin, yet horses seldom fall at the latter track.

President J. T. R. Laurendeau and Manager S. N. Holman, of the Dorval Jockey Club, have returned to Montreal after a trip to Kentucky, where an order was placed for eighteen pari-mutuel machines for next spring's meeting at Dorval. A formal application has been forwarded to Secretary W. P. Fraser of the Canadian Racing Associations for affiliation and for dates for next season.

At Maisons Laffitte track, near Paris, September 26, the Prix de L'Hudson River for two-year-olds at seven-eighths of a mile, was won by the Duke Decaze's bay colt Ambre II., by Ogden—Lady Amelia, carrying 126 pounds and giving from four to thirteen pounds to his opponents. It would be of interest to know how and when this Madden-bred youngster passed into the possession of his aristocratic owner.

The Australian Jockey Club is barring bookmakers' horses and Sir George Clifford, chairman of the New Zealand Racing Conference, proposes to go a good deal farther. Bookmaking is prohibited in New Zealand, where the totalizator is the only legal method of racing speculation, but there is a certain amount of surreptitious betting with men who carry on the business. Sir George wants to see it made a breach of racing law for an owner to make a bet with a bookmaker, the penalty being disqualification of his horses.

It transpired at the annual meeting of the Western Australian Turf Club that the cost of running the totalizator was nearly 37 per cent. of the gross revenue derived from that source. This included the year's government tax of $23,560, but still was such a particularly heavy item that the club is trying to devise a more economic working method. With this object in view, it is by no means improbable a representative of the club will be sent to study the working of the pari-mutuels in Paris. In wages, printing and incidentals, apart from the tax, the machine appears to have cost the Western Australian Turf Club over $15,000 for eighteen days' racing, so it is not surprising that an attempt is to be made to lessen future expenditure.—Sydney Referee.

Though racing has reached such a high standard in Buenos Aires, it must not be supposed it is the same throughout the Argentine. "Country" racing there is rather poor, and, writing from Buenos Aires, a correspondent says it does not compare favorably with that of fair-sized towns in Australia. In proof thereof he forwards a program of a meeting held at Cordoba recently, and adds 'At this meeting, as you will see, there were four races only, and while the highest prize was only a little over $200 the entrance fee for that race was a little over $20, with no second or third prize. Cordoba is the third city of the Argentine, with a population of 120,000. Of course, racing is booming in the capital—Buenos Aires—but elsewhere the game is not alluring to owners."—Sydney Referee.

MRS. L. A. LIVINGSTON WINS KENTUCKY ENDURANCE STAKES FOR THE SECOND TIME

Pandorina, a Product of Rancocas Farm, Duplicates Last Year's Victory of Her Stablemate, Sotemia — Other Contestants Collapse and Time Is Far Slower Than Expected — Bringhurst Makes a New American Record for Five and a Half Furlongs

Louisville, Ky., October 8.—Mrs. L. A. Livingston scored her second triumph in the Kentucky Endurance Stakes when Pandorina carried her colors to victory in the third running of this rich and much coveted event at Churchill Downs this afternoon. Flora Fina and Prince Eugene were second and third respectively. Beautiful, the only other starter, retired from contention after going three miles and a half. The gross value of the race was $13,000, of which the winner's net portion was $8,750 and a gold cup valued at $1,000 donated by the Kentucky State Racing Commission. Flora Fina's reward for running second was $2,600 and Prince Eugene earned $1,300. The time of the race 7:27⅕, was 16⅖ seconds slower than the American record of 7:10⅘, made by Mrs. Livingston's Sotemia in winning the race last year.

Condition was the main factor in Pandorina's victory. Trainer Matt Feakes, who also prepared Sotemia for this race last season, had his present charge in superb form, and she returned to the scales after the contest comparatively fresh, in striking contrast to her opponents. Flora Fina collapsed utterly just as she crossed the finishing line after a game exhibition in beating Prince Eugene for second money. The latter was exhausted when he was taken back to his stable. Beautiful could go no further than three and one-half miles and was then led off the course.

The early running was dominated by Prince Eugene, which assumed a long lead, chiefly because Kederis could not keep him under sufficient restraint. Pandorina came next, with Beautiful and Flora Fina following. This order was maintained for the first two miles, with Prince Eugene's lead varying from 50 to 100 lengths. Loftus kept Flora Fina almost a quarter of a mile behind the leader. In beginning the third mile Gross began to urge Pandorina and she drew on level terms with the leader after going two miles and three-quarters and assumed a good lead before three miles had been traversed. During the last mile she was taken in hand and allowed to loaf, but passed the finish before Prince Eugene had reached the furlong post in the stretch. Prince Eugene at this point began to shorten his stride perceptibly, which enabled Flora Fina to come from far back and beat him to the finish. Immediately after finishing, Flora Fina began to stagger and went down in a heap suffering with exhaustion and cramps. She recovered after getting her wind back and was led to her stable. Prince Eugene required the services of two veterinarians, but he was also finally brought around in good shape.

Mrs. Livingston, who came here from her home in Jobstown, N. J., witnessed the race from a private box in the grandstand and after the finish was invited to the stewards' stand, where Mayor Head of Louisville, in behalf of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, presented her with the handsome gold cup and a magnificent bouquet of American beauty roses. In attendance at the presentation were Messrs. Milton Young, George J. Long, J. Hart Talbott and Charles F. Grainger, members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission; J. Pelham Johnston, secretary to the commission; presiding Steward Charles F. Price and General Manager Matt J. Winn. Mrs. Livingston thanked the mayor for the commission's gracious gift and expressed her pleasure over having scored a victory in the race for the second time. This was Mrs. Livingston's first visit to Churchill Downs and she was genuinely surprised by the magnitude of the plant, its parklike appearance and the great concourse of visitors.

Threatening weather during the forenoon gave way to sunshine about noon, and a big throng of people wending their way to Churchill Downs. Arrivals were numerous and continuous after one o'clock and the grandstand, the broad lawns in front and the steps became congested with spectators looking for vantage points. The society element, with its reservations in the clubhouse, and the boxholders were a bit tardy, but by the time for the opening race their numbers had increased to a stage where no more space was available. There were delegations from all sections of the country. Cincinnati, Chicago, Memphis, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Philadelphia and San Antonio, Tex., contributing a large quota of racing devotees, attracted by the four-mile contest.

There was a big sprinkling of old-timers, who gave details to the younger set of the four-mile racing of long ago and recounted with pride the memorable struggles they had witnessed at this track between the champions and favorites of the past. The Molly McCarty-Ten Broeck match was a favorite theme with them.

While the four-mile race naturally engrossed the greatest attention, the other contests were also immensely enjoyed and speculation was of heavy volume. It was nearly 35 per cent. bigger than any day at Douglas Park.

Favorites fared poorly, John D. Wakefield being the only first choice to make good. The all-aged race at five and a half furlongs, which brought together several speedy youngsters, besides the older cracks, Leochares and Hawthorn, resulted in the lowering of the American record for the distance when J. N. Camden's Bringhurst led Leochares to the finish in 1:04⅘. The former track record was 1:05, made by Round the World, and the American record of 1:04⅘ for the distance that was displaced was made by Lady Irma at Santa Anita Park, Cal., December 28, 1908. Bringhurst displayed a high flight of speed and rare gameness and held the hard striving Leochares safe during the final furlong. Black Toney headed the once great Hawthorn during the stretch racing and beat him for third money.

Pay Streak and Mimorioso were the favored ones in the third race. The former was stricken with a hemorrhage and had to retire from the contest during the stretch racing and crowding to which Mimorioso was subjected eliminated him from serious contention. Ambrose, with a change of riders from Martin to Kederis, showed his best form and disposed of Back Bay, the early leader, for the purse.

In the fifth race, Samuel R. Meyer, running in his best form, scored over the poorly handled favorite Kleburne. Keogh had the mount on the latter and got him involved in numerous jams.

Jockey Goose contributed to the interference from which Kleburne suffered and was cautioned by the stewards. The closing dash went to Joe Deibold over Oakhurst and Sam Hirsch, with the favorite, High Private, just failing to get part of the purse. Joe Deibold was entered for $500 and was bid up $1,000 by E. A. Colton, trainer of Marshon, but was retained by trainer J. L. McGinnis for Mrs. M. R. Farmer.

J. L. McGinnis decided not to take a chance of starting Sam Jackson in the four-mile race on account of the suspicious filling of one of the horse's forelegs. The injury at present is not considered serious, but to have sent him into the contest would have been equivalent to inviting the horse's permanent breakdown. Mr. McGinnis regretted that he could not start the horse, as he began to prepare him for the race as far back as the Saratoga meeting. Sam Jackson and other members of the McGinnis establishment will engage in Kentucky racing for the remainder of the season.

General Manager Matt J. Winn was highly elated over the immense turnout of people that witnessed the running of the Endurance Stakes. He spoke glowingly of the meeting now on at Laurel and will return there on Friday next, as he feels that his capable staff of assistants at Churchill Downs can well manage affairs without his presence.

J. N. Camden was the only member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission absent. Pressing business detained him in the east.

Governor McCreary sent his regrets that he could not be present for the racing this afternoon. Business affair of importance were instrumental in keeping him from the course.

Capt. J. H. Rees came down from Pittsburgh expressly to witness the four-mile race. Capt. Rees reiterated his former statement that there will be an early revival of racing in Tennessee under the pari-mutuel system of betting and with legislative consent.

Prior to the racing T. C. McDowell disposed of the filly Watermelon to John E. Madden, who will retire her to the stud when her racing career ends. Mr. Madden is negotiating with Jefferson Livingston for the sale of several of his fashionably bred yearlings now at Hamburg Place.

Arthur Hancock, the well-known Virginia breeder, who recently added several high-priced stallions to his Ellerslie establishment, was among the visitors.

John Hachmeister, manager of the Douglas Park and Latonia tracks, and his capable assistant, Frank J. Bruen, were among the spectators. Mr. Bruen distributed the blanks for the Charleston stakes to numerous owners.

Col. Alex Labold and Jack Lory were early arrivals and renewed acquaintances among the officials, owners and trainers.

Jockey J. Glass will return east in a few days to be on hand for the Piping Rock meeting.

Frederick Johnson, owner of Cock o' the Walk, was an arrival this morning, and expressed regret over the fact that he could not send his representative to the post. Trainer Mayberry believes that the colt will completely recover during the winter.

Jefferson Livingston, owner of Prince Eugene, congratulated Mrs. Livingston heartily on Pandorina's success. It was their first meeting. Prince Eugene ran in the colors and name of H. P. Whitney, who entered him.

Mrs. Livingston was given a great ovation by the spectators after being presented with the gold cup and bouquet. She acknowledged the plaudits by smiling and bowing repeatedly to the crowd.

Francis J. Pons arrived today from his farm in Madison, Tenn., and corroborated the report that he had disposed of his preferred stock in the Charleston race track and had resigned the management of that plant.

E. Whyte, trainer of the Valley Farm Stable, came over from Toronto to witness the racing.

Capt. Thomas J. Clay, presiding judge at the Dorval track in Montreal, came from his home near Lexington to view the racing. Captain Clay was enthusiastic over the prospects for good meetings at Dorval next year. He expects that every prominent three-year-old in the country will be engaged for the International Derby of $20,000 to be run at that track next season.

Trainer Feakes will keep Pandorina here for several days before shipping her to Pimlico, where she will engage in some of the long distance races to be decided there.

Iron Mask, which came out of his last race in bad shape, is gradually rounding to, but will not start again until the Latonia meeting.

The big Chicago delegation was headed by "Smiley" Corbett. Most of them will remain here for several days before returning to Chicago.

Pandorina ran five times last season as a two-year-old and failed to win, but was once second and twice third at this age. This season she had started twelve times before today's race. In her last previous race, in the Ontario Jockey Club Cup two miles and a quarter, run at Toronto, she was second to the four-year-old Airey, beaten a nose in 3:57⅖. Previously she ran fourth in the Earl Grey Cup, one mile and a quarter, in 2:04⅘, which event was won by the noted three-year-old, Great Britain.

Pandorina is a daughter of Bowling Brook, which was bred in England, being out of a mare sent there by the late John A. Morris, in a band of noted stud matrons he shipped abroad to be mated with fashionable English sires. He is by the Epsom Derby winner, Ayrshire, and out of Vacation, by Tom Ochiltree, a son of Lexington. He traces to the famous Dance family on the side of his dam. Bowling Brook was a great race horse, winning as a two-year-old the first part of the Double Event, and as a three-year-old the Metropolitan Handicap and Belmont Stakes.

Pandorina is out of Pandora, by Emperor, a son of Enquirer. Pandora is the dam of several winners, including Givonni Balerio, by Pontiac; Belle of Niles, Pan II., Charma, the dam of five winners, and the good producer, Hope, the dam of Perdicur, a winner for no less than eight seasons in England.

Pandorina was foaled at Rancocas Farm in New Jersey, where Sotemia was also bred and born. Her granddam is the famous Susan Ann, by Lexington, which also produced Henlopen and Thora, the latter one of America's noted race queens. Thora was as great a producer as she was a performer on the turf, she being the dam of those three great stake winners, Yorkville Belle, Sir Francis and Dobbins. Both Susan Ann and Thora ran great races up to three miles and evidently could have gone the distance of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes had they been asked to perform such a feat. Susan Ann was out of Roxana, by Chesterfield, which mare, in addition to the noted daughter of Lexington, produced the good race horses, Blarneystone, Tipperary, Jury and Chesapeake and the noted producer, Colleen Bawn, dam of Blast.

Matt Feakes, who has now saddled two winners of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes for Mrs. Livingston, was, in the 'seventies and early 'eighties, a successful rider, being contemporary with such noted jockeys as R. Swim, J. Rowe, R. Barbee, W. Hayward, C. Holloway, George Evans, Dan Sparling, W. Donahue, William Walker, G. Hughes and G. Palmer. During his career as a jockey he won many great races with his mounts, among which were the Champagne Stakes, on Grimstead; the Hunter Stakes, on Spark; the Jerome Stakes, on Barrett, and again on Water Lily; the Ladies' Stakes, on Hiawassa, and the Nursery Stakes, on Olitipa. He has been a highly successful trainer since he forsook the saddle nearly thirty years ago, and is considered a master in the art of training a horse for long-distance racing.

MUTUELS NOT A LOTTERY

CANADIAN JUDGE UPHOLDS LEGALITY OF PARI-MUTUEL METHOD OF BETTING.

Suit Brought Against Ontario Jockey Club by Disgruntled Bookmaker Completely Collapses When Taken Into Court.

Toronto, Ont., October 8.—The prosecution of the Ontario Jockey Club by former bookmaker John Scully on the charge of maintaining a lottery in the form of a pari-mutuel betting system at Woodbine came to a quick and complete collapse when taken into court yesterday. It was heard by Judge Morgan and a jury in the General Sessions, and Scully was the only witness on his side. All the facts were admitted and no evidence was needed in that regard, the club contending that what was done was legal and known to be so.

Counsel for the defense gave Scully an uncomfortable time when cross-examining him as to his motives in bringing the suit. It was suggested by counsel that he was actuated by motives of revenge, because he is regularly ejected from every Canadian Racing Associations track on which he is found and because the Canadian Racing Associations is endeavoring to collect from him the $700 he owed for cost in his unsuccessful suit for damages. Scully claimed that he was acting in the interest of the public.

Judge Morgan ordered the indictment withdrawn from the jury and a verdict of not guilty entered. He said there was nothing in the case to bring it under the lottery act. There was no disposal of anything by lot and the machines were simply registering or recording instruments.

The court refused an application for a reserved case for appeal, as this was a private prosecution and not brought by the Crown authorities.

Little interest was taken by the public in the case, as it was known that the Ontario Jockey Club has the strongest possible assurance of its position before the system was installed a couple of years ago and the result was a foregone conclusion.

BIG DEAL IN THOROUGHBREDS.

W. B. Miller, of Akron, O., Buys Half Interest in Uncle and Beaumont Farm Mares.

Lexington, Ky., October 8.—Hal Price Headley, of this city, who last month at the dispersal sale of thoroughbred horses belonging to the estate of the late Charles Kohler paid $38,500 for the stallion Uncle, sire of the two-year-old champion, Old Rosebud, today sold one-half interest in that eight-year-old son of Star Shoot and The Niece and twenty broodmares at Beaumont Farm to W. B. Miller of Akron, O. Mr. Miller is well known and popular on the trotting turf and in horse show circles, but he is a newcomer to the ranks of thoroughbred breeders. He is exceedingly wealthy and made his money in the manufacture of rubber. He was president of the Diamond Rubber Co., which was merged with the Goodrich Company.

The mares now jointly owned by Messrs. Headley and Miller are Xarco, Planutes, Ollie Belle, Thoughtless, May Hempstead, Chum, Ave Marie, Genius, St. Ursula, Princess Orna, Undecided, Nigella, Tehera, Star Dreamer, Tart, Dorval, Proclaim, Jhansi McKenna, Dreamy Eyes, Matterhorn and Katrine. All of these, with the exception of Planutes, Legend, Matterhorn and Katrine, were mated with Ballot this year. Planutes was mated with Waterboy and Legend and Matterhorn to Superman. Katrine was not bred. The horses are all to remain at Beaumont Farm.

James P. Ross has sold the two-year-old brown colt Consider, by Orlando—Sanctissima to Martin Towle of Boston.

Amos Turney today bought from Thomas R. Gardner, of Timberland Stud, two yearling colts by Electioneer, one out of Little Em and the other out of Rose Crest, a sister to Little Em.

STEEPLECHASING IN AUSTRALIA.

The Grand National meetings in Victoria (says the "Australasian") were singularly free from serious accidents this winter. It looked as though the season was going to pass off without any bad accident whatever, but on Saturday, August 9, two horses were killed and a jockey broke his leg. It is impossible to have steeplechasing without mishaps. The Australian rules prohibit the low fence which proprietaries looking for large fields favored, and the brush has come in as a substitute. On one course, we believe, the brush jumpers are stiff enough to bring a horse down. On some others they are flimsy concerns that can be galloped through. There is no sign that there is to be any change at Flemington. The fences there are not as high as they were, but there is as much jumping in three miles there as in four miles at Caulfield, and still, we believe, jockeys say they would rather ride over Flemington than any other course. Jockeys like it because the jumps are so well placed. The Flemington fences are nothing like so high as those at Aintree, where the Liverpool Grand National is run, but they take doing, and if we are to have brush with a two feet, six inches rail at other places, it is to be hoped Flemington will always remain for the benefit of those horses which can gallop over a fair-sized fence.—London Sportsman.
